

THANK

To all the frontline workers who are risking their lives everyday to stop the spread of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Right now, the world is silent; but, not you.

It's hard, sometimes, to realize the blessings that a person has. But, we know - it is you. You are the foundation of our community; words cannot express our appreciation for your courage and dedication. Thank you.